

The reason I would like to have my grandfather's name on a plaque is because he has done so much for me.

He is one of the reason's I strive to be the best I can. He has taught me many things. Some of there are: he taught me to be grateful of what you get. He also taught me that not everything good comes in big packages, than even something small can be the best gift of all.

Unfortunately my grandfather suffers from diabetes and has already had a heart attack. I really want him to be remembered for all the great things he has done because I think that he is one of the greatest grandfathers ever.

My grandfather has been such an inspiration for me. If I had a choice that was difficult for me I could always go to him for help and every time I do he is always there and he would always give me great advice.

So I would like to have my grandfather's name, James Quinn, on a plaque so I can give him something back for all the times he has done something for me.

Jonathan Quinn

Hi, my name is Matteo. I'm in grade three. My grandma Susie lives here in Innisfil. My dad lived here and went to college in Barrie long before I was born. I love to come to grandma Susie's house. She plays puppets with me. We read and we go for long walks when I have weekend sleepovers. Grandma and I go swimming in the summer at the beach all the time. I asked her to take a photo of me at the Lake so I could show all my friends in Bolton because I tell them about my weekends with my grandma Susie. My grandma told me that she was hoping that she had the Rec Centre for my dad and my Uncle Lance and Uncle JC. Uncle Lance taught guitar at T.J. Music. He is always playing guitar.

Now that there is going to be a Rec Centre I know my grandma is going to take me there to swim even in the winter. Even the doctor told my dad it's good for my heart. I had heart surjury when I was little but now I'm OK. I have a good heart now. I never get tired, but my grandma Susie does. But she still plays hide and go seek with me, even when she is tired. I'm going to have even more things to do with grandma for fun. I write stories and draw a lot. This time I am writing a story to tell you about my very, very special grandma Susie. I would like a chair with her name on it. So I can sit on it always because I love her and she loves me and she says that is what's important.
