Personal glimpses Wedding

Congratulations to Lisa Christine Quist and Jeremiah Maenhout, whose wedding was held on August 25th.

The double ring ceremony, officiated by Rev. Heather Power, took place outdoors at the Nordic Highland Ski Centre in Duntroon.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, was attended by Matron of Honour Melanie Moyer (sister) and bridesmaids Ashlyn Maenhout and Brianna Maenhout (groom's daughters), wearing long periwinkle blue dresses.

Attending the groom were Adam Clark and Tyler Maenhout (his son).

Special guests attending the wedding and reception, which was held at the Nottawasaga Community Hall in Duntroon, were Anne Quist and husband Gerry of Harrison, B.C., Darren, Caroline and Jacob of Roberts Creeks, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Maenhout will reside in Stayner.

Visit

Stan and Marilyn Nelles of Cookstown visited their son Jay, Stacey and their children Julia and Kathryn in Gander, Newfoundland for two weeks this summer.

Jay is Commander of the 103 Search and Rescue Squadron.

Their daughter Laurie with husband Jeff Abthorpe are stationed with the Canadian Armed Forces in Petawawa.

Daughter Leslie who works in investments and husband Michael, who is with IBM, live in Toronto and are staying in close touch with all the Nelles family members.

Plowing match

Wib and Beryl Hadwen attended the Hastings County Plowing match in Belleville from Aug. 22 - 23d.

Wib, who plowed in the Senior class, got first prize for his age.

While in Belleville, the Hadwens stayed with Kim and Jeane Madly.

The Hadwens are also planning to attend the IPM at Thunder Bay.

Fish Supper

On Friday, August 31st, I watched Bonnie West, Joan Webb, Karen Korevaar and Elaine Gadsden, members of St. John's Anglican Church, getting the beans ready for the Sept. 7 Fish Supper.

The about 50 lbs of beans, grown on the West Family farm, that were cleaned from all things, left after combining.

After soaking the beans over night, the beans double in size and will be ready for the bean pots.

Be sure and come to taste them.

While there, Karen Korevaar, told me about her daughter 17 year old Mandy, who as a member of the Aurora Storm Volley Ball team, has participated in the Magna International Hoe Down, fundraising event.

Her other daughter, 15 year old Emily, was busy getting the material ready, helping at the Vacation Bible School.

Barrie joins c o u n t y g o v e r n a n c e c o m m i t t e e

by Richard Blanchard

The City of Barrie has nothing to fear from participating in Simcoe county's ongoing review of growth, Simcoe county warden Tony Guergis said last week.

Guergis was responding to Barrie's decision to sit only as observers on the committee.

Both Orillia and Barrie were asked earlier this year to send representatives to the committee which is reviewing projections for growth for Simcoe county over the next 25 years. Orillia has sent a member of its council.

"It's good news but we were really hoping for a full partnership and full participation," said Guergis who said the committee is essentially an advisory committee whose findings will go to all municipalities involved before any decisions are made.

Guergis said that activities such as tourism are obviously areas which could benefit from better co-operation among all municipalities.

"Barrie generates the shopping and jobs. Recreation activities like skiing and golf are external to the city," said the warden. "The business community is expecting that kind of leadership from us."
