

Former deputy CAO Brian Gauley passes

By Richard Blanchard
Brian Gauley, a municipi-

pal administrator for over 30 years in South Simcoe, passed away suddenly on Sunday.

Mr. Gauley was the clerk of Alliston for over 20 years before amalgamation and then served as Deputy Chief Administrative Officer of New Tecumseth until his retirement about four years ago.

Born on the family farm on Country Road 10 outside of Baxter in Essa township, he attended Baxter Public School and Banting Memorial High School.

After working in the retail sector after high school, he became clerk of Essa township in the late 1960's and then moved to become clerk of Alliston in the early 1970's.

After Alliston was amalgamated with the villages of Beeton and Tottenham and the Township of Tecumseth, he became deputy CAO for the new municipality.

Brian Gauley Athletic Field in Alliston was named in his honour after his retirement.

He and his wife, Barbara, lived in the Elmgrove area of Essa township for 40 years and was involved in the local community group and the youth baseball team there.

He also was a volunteer with the Beeton Fall Fair and worked there Saturday.

He was a life long member of the Presbyterian Church in Baxter.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Ann, his sons Darryl and Dean and their wives Theresa and Danielle and grandchildren Amber, Keira, Taylor, Brittany and Olivia.

He is also survived his brothers, Bruce and Bob Gauley and his sisters, Ann Mitchell and Heather Snowdon and their spouses.

Friends may call at the W. John Thomas Funeral Home on Wednesday between 2 and 4 and 7 and 9 p.m.

Funeral services will be held at Knox Presbyterian Church in Alliston on Thursday at 11 a.m.

Memorial donations may be made to the Living Faith Community Presbyterian Church, Baxter or the Matthews House Hospice.

Reduce the risk

The Innisfil Reduce the Risk Committee are pleased to present "Reduce The Risk" safety event on Thursday Sept. 20, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., at the Royal Distributing grounds located at 1954 Commerce Park Dr., Innisfil.

The event is being held in conjunction with Royal Distributing's "No Tax Fall Tent Sale", which is open to the public.

Everyone visiting the "Reduce the Risk" displays will be entered into a draw for some great door prizes!

Trail permits purchased at this event will include a $10 gift card courtesy of Royal Distributing.
