

Get some gifts wrapped

Are you too busy to worry about wrapping gifts? Do you need your gifts wrapped before you bring them home or your kids will discover them? Let the Alzheimer Society help you out. The Alzheimer Society of Greater Simcoe County is providing a gift wrapping service at the Kozlov Centre and Bayfield Mall from Dec. 14 to 24 during mall hours. The gift wrap volunteers are trained to provide quality gift-wrapping and excellent customer service. Gift wrapping prices are reasonable and thanks to financial support from Bayfield Mall and the Kozlov Centre, all proceeds go to the society.

The society provides programs and services to people with Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia, their families and caregivers. In Simcoe County alone it is estimated that 5,400 people are living with this disease.

The society offers these people help for today, by providing a variety of support services, both professional and public education programs and a resource lending library and hope for tomorrow by contributing funds to biomedical and caregiving research

For more information or for gift-wrapping hours, please call the society at 722-1066.

Family outreach program needs some holiday help

The Innisfil Christmas for Kids outreach program is available to any family in the community that is in need of extra support during the holiday season.

With the generosity given from local schools, businesses, the United Church, Churchill, and co-ordinated by the parishioners of St. John's and St. Peter's Anglican churches, this program has reached up to 45 local families each Christmas Season.

If your family, or a family you know, needs some extra support this holiday season, please call outreach coordinators Debra Harrison at 458-2324 (for those living west of Highway 400) or Myrlene Boken at 456-6731 (for those on the east side of the highway).

All calls are strictly confidential.

OPP raises cash for United Way campaign

The United Way of Greater of Greater Simcoe County is delighted to announce that the hard-working volunteers of the Ontario Provincial Police raised $2,021 at their All-You-Can-Eat Pasta Dinner Nov. 23.

Madison County Food and Beverage donated all of the food for the fundraiser, as well as two staff members to assist during the dinner itself. Lakehead University and Georgian College provided a team of volunteers to wash dishes and serve the 300 guests, as they sat down to their dinner at OPP headquarters in Orillia.

Seija Suutari, the United Way branch's executive director, says the volunteers played a significant role in contributing to its annual fundraising campaign.

"This is a shining example among hundreds where groups of volunteers demonstrate their compassion to their community and kindness to its citizens by organizing an event to raise money for United Way," she said. "These funds will be part of the community fund, which will be distributed to help, the sick and elderly, the troubled teenager or to a single mother struggling to feed and clothe her children. Every amount of money raised will have a local impact."

For more information or to make a donation to the United Way, call 726-2301.
