DUIVENVOORDEN, NICK February 17, 1943 - April 16, 2007

It feels like just yesterday you left us, but already a year has gone by. Our hearts are still broken and our arms still ache for a great big hug. If tears could build a stairway we would march right up to heaven and bring you home. You were a grand man, the best of the best! A devoted and loving husband, dad, Opa, brother and uncle. Dad, your family loves you very much and misses you even more. We take comfort in knowing that you are in good hands. You are always in our memories and forever in our hearts.

Love your daughter Noreen, your loving wife Dianne, Peter & Michele, Nick & Debbie, Noreen & Chris, Elisabeth & Tibor and 8 wonderful grandchildren.

FAITH MITCHELL APRIL 22nd, 1998

I know each and every day, You stay by our side and keep us safe, You are always with us no matter what takes place, Thank you for watching over us from above,

Our special Angel full of love, It has almost been ten years since you were taken away, Why does it feel like yesterday? The tears may fade but the pain stays near, We see now what is clear, Our Love and Faith will never disappear.

Gibson Centre is going green for Earth Day

The Gibson Centre was proud to participate as an official supporter in Earth Hour, the global initiative that asked cities and businesses to turn off non-essential lighting for one hour on Saturday March 29.

This was part of a larger initiative at The Gibson Centre to go green in the coming year.

Following a recent polar artist exhibit that featured environmental advocate Linda Mackey, the centre has become very interested in creating awareness about global warming not only within its building, but within the community as well.
